

ROYAL AIR FORCE CLUB

— CELEBRATING 100 YEARS —

A Club Welcome

Located in London's Mayfair, the Royal Air Force Club offers luxurious and peaceful surroundings to serving and former officers of the RAF and Allied Air Forces.

Founded in 1918 and opening its doors in 1922, the Club's elegant interior has been enhanced to its present high standard. With striking aviation artwork lining the walls, eye-catching stained glass window and the unique squadron badge corridor, a truly fascinating history is brought to life.

Join us in our centenary year and experience a unique setting, impeccable service and the warmest of welcomes.

Meetings & Events

With a range of function rooms to choose from, The Royal Air Force Club is the perfect place to meet colleagues, friends or family.

We happily accommodate all types of social and business events from formal dinners, casual lunches, business meetings or conferences to cocktail parties, wedding ceremonies and receptions.

The Club can accommodate receptions for up to 200 people or a seated event for up to 140, and can provide tailor-made menus to suit you and your guests. Please note you do not need to be a member to hold your private event at the Club.
